16. Section 4 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) (a) An officer may, for the purposes of this Act[—

(i) without previous notice, at any time] enter any premises [whatsoever and make such examination and enquiry as he deems necessary] subject to the other provisions of this section. 40

(aA) An officer may enter premises in terms of paragraph (a) only on authority of a warrant issued by a magistrate or judge, provided that in the case of the following categories of premises an officer may enter the premises without a warrant: 45

(i) Premises managed or operated by the State or a public entity within the meaning of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No 1 of 1999) as part of a port, airport, railway station or land border post and on which an activity to which this Act applies is carried out or allowed; 50

(ii) premises licensed or registered in terms of this Act;

(iii) premises occupied by a person licensed or registered in terms of this Act and used for purposes of the business for which that person is licensed or registered; and

(iv) premises entered by an officer with the consent of the owner or person in physical control of the premises after that owner or 55 person was informed that there is no obligation to admit the officer in the absence of a warrant.

(aB) An officer may without a warrant enter any premises for which a warrant is required in terms of paragraph (aA) if the officer on reasonable grounds believes—

- (i) that a warrant will be issued by a magistrate or judge if a warrant is applied for; and
- (ii) that the delay in obtaining the warrant is likely to defeat the purpose for which the officer seeks to enter the premises.

(aC) An officer may for purposes of this Act—

- (i) after having gained entry to any premises in terms of this subsection, conduct an inspection, examination, enquiry or a search;
- (ii) while [he] the officer is on the premises or at any other time require from any person the production then and there, or at a time and place fixed by the officer, of any book, document or thing which by this Act is required to be kept or exhibited or which relates to or which [he] the officer has reasonable cause to suspect of relating to matters dealt with in this Act and which is or has been on the premises or in the possession or custody or under the control of any such person or his employee;
- (iii) at any time and at any place require from any person who has or is believed to have the possession or custody or control of any book, document or thing relating to any matter dealt with in this Act, the production thereof then and there, or at a time and place fixed by the officer; and
- (iv) examine and make extracts from and copies of any such book or document and may require from any person an explanation of any entry therein and may attach any such book, document or thing as in [his] the opinion of the officer may afford evidence of any matter dealt with in this Act.

(b) An officer may take with him or her on to any premises an assistant or a member of the police force[.], provided that only those assistants and members of the police force whose presence, in the reasonable opinion of the officer, is necessary for purposes of conducting the inspection, examination, enquiry or search on the premises may enter the premises.

(c) When entering any premises in terms of paragraph (aB), the officer shall comply with the following requirements:

- (i) The officer may enter the premises only during ordinary business hours unless in the reasonable opinion of the officer entry at any other time is necessary for purposes of this Act;
- (ii) the officer shall, upon seeking admission to the premises, inform the person in charge of the premises of the purpose of the entry;
- (iii) if the purpose of the entry is, or if the officer after having gained entry decides, to search the premises for goods, records or any other things in respect of which an offence in terms of this Act is suspected to have been committed or that may be used as evidence for the prosecution of such an offence—

(aa) the officer shall hand to the person in charge a written statement signed by the officer stating that a search of the premises is to be conducted unless, in the officer's reasonable opinion, there are circumstances of urgency which may result in the search being frustrated if its commencement is delayed until such a statement can be prepared;

- (bb) the officer's actions shall be confined to such searching, inspection, enquiries and examination as are reasonably necessary for the purpose of the search;
- (cc) the officer may, either before or after complying with item (aa), take such steps as the officer considers necessary to prevent persons present on the premises from concealing, destroying or tampering with any documents, data or things located on the premises;
- (dd) the person in charge shall have the right to be present, or to appoint a delegate to be present, during and to observe the search;
- (ee) the officer shall compile an inventory of all items removed from the premises and shall, prior to leaving the premises, sign the inventory and hand a copy thereof to the person in charge: Provided that if it is not possible in the circumstances to compile, sign and hand such inventory to the person in charge before leaving the premises, the officer shall seal the items to be removed and as soon as possible after removal of the items from the premises, compile the inventory in the presence of the person in charge of the premises, if that person requested to be present, and sign and hand a copy of the inventory to that person;
- (ff) the officer shall compile a schedule of all copies and extracts made in the course of the search and shall, prior to leaving the premises, sign and hand a copy thereof to the person in charge; and
- (gg) the officer must conduct the search with strict regard for decency and order.
- (d) A judge or magistrate may issue a warrant referred to in paragraph (aA) only on written application by an officer setting out under oath or affirmation the grounds why it is necessary for an officer to gain access to the relevant premises.
- (e) If the purpose of the entry is to conduct a search of the premises for goods, records or any other things in respect of which an offence in terms of this Act is suspected to have been committed or that may be used as evidence for the prosecution of such an offence, the magistrate or judge may issue such warrant if it appears from the information on oath that—
- (i) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence in terms of this Act has been committed;
  - (ii) a search of the premises is likely to yield such goods, records or other things; and
  - (iii) the search is reasonably necessary for the purposes of this Act.”; and
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:
- “(6) (a) If an officer, after having declared his or her official capacity and his or her purpose and having demanded admission into any premises and having complied with any applicable requirements of subsection (4), is not immediately admitted, [he] the officer and any person assisting [him] the officer may at any time, but at night only in the presence of a member of the police force, break open any door or window or break through any wall on the premises for the purpose of entry and search.
- (b) An officer or any person assisting [him] the officer may at any time break up any ground or flooring on any premises for the purpose of a search if the officer in his or her reasonable opinion considers such breaking up to be necessary for the purposes of this Act; and if any room, place, safe, chest, box or package is locked and the keys thereof are not produced on demand, may open such room, place, safe, chest, box or package in any manner.”.
