Reclamation of land for state infrastructure

7B. (1) No organ of state may reclaim land for the development of state infrastructure unless authorised by the Minister.

(2) The Minister may, on application, approve reclamation in terms of this section.

(3) An application for reclamation must be—

(a) accompanied by—

(i) a detailed plan of how the land will be developed and utilised for the benefit of the State;

(ii) an assessment of whether there is any alternative land available and why such land cannot be used;

(iii) an explanation of the purpose for which the land is to be reclaimed;

(iv) detailed information on how development will be funded; and

(v) any other relevant information;

(b) submitted to the Minister for pre-approval prior to any application for an environmental authorisation in terms of Chapter 5 of the National Environmental Management Act; and

(c) published by notice in the Gazette for public comment by the Minister for a period of no less than 60 days.

(4) If an environmental authorisation is refused, a pre-approval in terms of subsection (3)(b) becomes invalid.

(5) If an environmental authorisation is granted, the applicant must resubmit to the Minister the application, the environmental authorisation and other documents related to the reclamation for a final decision.

(6) A final decision made by the Minister in terms of subsection (5) must be tabled in Parliament within 60 days of the decision.

(7) Any land reclaimed for the development of state infrastructure vests in the organ of state applying for such reclamation.

(8) Unless authorised by the Minister, land reclaimed in terms of subsection (2) may not be utilised other than in accordance with the purpose stated in the original application and conditions of the authorisation.

(9) The Minister may, when approving a reclamation application, make the approval subject to any conditions or title deed restrictions.

(10) Before making a decision in terms of this section, the Minister must consult with any organ of state that may be affected by such decision.

Reclamation of land for purposes other than state infrastructure

7C. (1) An application for reclamation for purposes other than the development of state infrastructure as contemplated in section 7B will only be considered in exceptional circumstances which are not contrary to the purpose of coastal public property as set out in section 7A.

(2) An application for reclamation in terms of this section must be accompanied by—

(a) details of how the land will be developed and its use;

(b) an assessment of whether there is any alternative land available and why such land cannot be used;

- (c) information on whether the land and structures will be accessible to the public;
- (d) information on whether the development is in the interests of the whole community;
- (e) detailed information on how the development will be funded; and
- (f) any other relevant information.
- (3) An application for reclamation must be submitted to the Minister for pre-approval prior to any application for an environmental authorisation in terms of Chapter 5 of the National Environmental Management Act.
- (4) The Minister must—
- (a) follow the consultation process in section 53 prior to pre-approving an application for reclamation; and
- (b) submit a pre-approval for reclamation to Parliament for ratification.
- (5) In the event that—
- (a) Parliament fails to ratify the pre-approval, the Minister's pre-approval as envisaged in subsection (3) becomes invalid; or
- (b) the environmental authorisation is refused, a pre-approval in terms of subsection (3) and a ratification in terms of subsection (4)(b) becomes invalid.
- (6) In the event that Parliament ratifies the pre-approval, application may be made for an environmental authorisation in terms of Chapter 5 of the National Environmental Management Act.
- (7) If an environmental authorisation is granted, the applicant must resubmit to the Minister the application, the environmental authorisation, the ratified pre-approval and other documents related to the reclamation for a final decision.
- (8) A final decision made by the Minister in terms of subsection (7) must be tabled in Parliament within 60 days of the decision.
- (9) Land reclaimed in terms of this section—
- (a) may not be sold under any circumstances;
- (b) must be subject to a lease as prescribed by the Minister; and
- (c) may not be subleased without the written authorisation of the Minister.
- (10) Unless authorised by the Minister, land reclaimed in terms of this section may not be utilised other than in accordance with the purpose stated in the original application and conditions of the authorisation.
- (11) The Minister may, when approving a reclamation application, make the approval subject to any conditions.”.

Insertion of section 66A in Act 24 of 2008

38. The principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion after section 66 of the following section:

“Leases in admiralty reserves

66A. (1) Notwithstanding section 7(1)(e), a lease in an admiralty reserve, prior to the commencement of this section, must be managed by the organ of state empowered to do so in terms of the relevant local, provincial or national legislation. 5

(2) A lease referred to in subsection (1), must be managed as prescribed by the Minister and until so prescribed, such leases must be managed in a manner that is consistent with the purpose of coastal public property as set out in section 7A.”. 10

Amendment of section 68 of Act 24 of 2008

39. The following section is hereby substituted for section 68 of the principal Act:

“Amendment, revocation, suspension or cancellation of authorisations 15

68. (1) An issuing authority may amend, revoke, suspend or cancel [an] a coastal authorisation issued in terms of this Act, if—

- (a) the holder of the coastal authorisation contravenes or fails to comply with a condition subject to which the coastal authorisation was issued;
- (b) it is in conflict with a coastal management programme or will significantly prejudice the attainment of a coastal management objective; 20
- (c) changes in circumstances require such amendment, revocation, suspension or cancellation; or
- (d) it is necessary to meet the Republic’s international obligations. 25

(2) An issuing authority must by written notice delivered to the holder of the coastal authorisation, or sent by registered post to the holder’s last known address, request the holder to make written representations within a period of 30 days from the date of the notice as to why the coastal authorisation should not be amended, revoked, suspended or cancelled, as the case may be. 30

(3) After the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (2) the issuing authority must consider the matter in the light of all relevant circumstances, including any representations made by the holder, and may—

- (a) revoke the coastal authorisation; 35
- (b) suspend the coastal authorisation for a period determined by the issuing authority;
- (c) cancel the coastal authorisation from a date determined by the issuing authority;
- (d) alter the terms or conditions of the coastal authorisation; or 40
- (e) decide not to amend, revoke, suspend or cancel the coastal authorisation.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), the issuing authority may, whenever it is in the interests of the promotion, protection or utilisation on a sustainable basis of the coastal zone, at any time by written notice to the holder of [an] a coastal authorisation amend, revoke, suspend or cancel the coastal authorisation. 45

(5) If the issuing authority intends to exercise the powers under subsection (4), subsection (2) shall apply with the necessary changes.

(6) If the Minister or an issuing authority has reason to believe that it is urgently necessary to exercise powers under [subsections] subsection (1), (3) or (4) in order to protect the coastal environment or human health and well-being, the Minister or issuing authority may, by notice to the holder of [an] a coastal authorisation, temporarily suspend the coastal authorisation and then follow the procedure referred to in subsection (3). 5

(7) A competent authority, when exercising the power to amend, withdraw or suspend an environmental authorisation in terms of the National Environmental Management Act, must consider the factors referred to in subsections (1), (4), (5) and (6) with the necessary changes.”. 10

58. The following section is hereby substituted for section 95 of the principal Act: 20

“Existing leases on, or rights to, coastal public property

95. (1) In order to enable the Minister to establish the nature and extent of existing uses within the coastal zone, the holder of a lease or right in terms of the Sea-shore Act, 1935 (Act No. 21 of 1935), or a lease within the admiralty reserve must, within 12 months of the commencement of this section, provide the Minister with a copy of the lease concluded in terms of the Sea-shore Act. 25

(2) If a lease under the Sea-Shore Act—

- (a) relates to an activity that is not listed in terms of section 65(1)(a), that lease is no longer required and therefore lapses, and the activity may continue; 30

- (b) relates to an activity which is prohibited by notice in terms of section 65(1)(a)(i), that activity must stop within a period of 180 days from the date of publication of such notice; or

- (c) relates to an activity requiring a permit in terms of section 65(1)(a)(ii) application must be made for a coastal use permit in terms of section 65(3) within a period of 180 days of the publication of the notice listing such activities. 35

(3) If an application for a coastal use permit contemplated in subsection 2(c) is refused, that activity must stop within a period of 180 days of receipt of the refusal. 40

(4) Unless a person referred to in subsection (2)(c) is directed otherwise by a person acting in terms of this Act, it is not an offence for that person to continue with the activity if that person makes an application for a permit under section 65(3)(a) within 180 days as contemplated in subsection (2)(c) but has not yet been notified whether the application has been granted or refused.” 45

59. The following section is hereby substituted for section 96 of the principal Act:

“Unlawful structures on coastal public property

(1) [Subject to the Prevention of Illegal Eviction from and Unlawful Occupation of Land Act, 1998 (Act No. 19 of 1998), and subsection (4), a] A person who, before this [Act] section took effect, had unlawfully constructed a building or other structure on coastal public property or who, when this [Act] section took effect, occupied a building or other structure unlawfully built on coastal public property must—

- (a) within 180 days of the publication of the Gazette notice contemplated in section 65(1)(a)(ii), apply for a coastal [lease in terms of Chapter 7] use permit if the activity is listed in terms of section 65(1)(a)(ii); or
- (b) within 180 days of the publication of the Gazette notice contemplated in section 65(1)(a)(i), demolish the building or structure and as far as reasonably possible, restore the site to its condition before the building or other structure was built, if the activity is prohibited in terms of section 65(1)(a)(i); and must notify the Department with proof of such demolition and restoration.

(2) If a person referred to in subsection (1) applies for a coastal [lease] use permit in accordance with [subsection (1)] section 65(3)(a) and the application is refused by the Minister, that person must demolish the building or structure and, within a reasonable period, as determined by the Minister when refusing the application, as far as reasonably possible restore the site to its condition before the building or other structure was built.

(3) If a person who in terms of subsection (1) or (2) is obliged to demolish the building or structure and to restore the site to its original condition, fails to do so within the period specified in subsection (1)(b) or specified by the Minister in subsection (2), the Minister [or the MEC] may, under section 60, issue a written repair or removal notice to that person.

(3A) If appropriate, before issuing a notice as contemplated in subsection (3), the Minister must consider the effect this may have on the elderly, children, disabled persons and households headed by women, particularly in low-income households.

(4) This section does not affect—

- (a) any legal proceedings that commenced prior to the commencement of this [Act] section to enforce any prohibition or restriction on construction or other activities in terms of any other law; or
- (b) any legal proceedings instituted after the commencement of this Act to enforce any notice served prior to the commencement of this section that required the addressee to vacate or demolish any building or structure that was constructed unlawfully; or].

[(c) any rights a person may have in terms of the Prevention of Illegal Eviction from and Unlawful Occupation of Land Act, 1998 (Act No. 19 of 1998).]”.
